2.5: The club has up to date information on the following and informs coaches as appropriate. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Contact details of parent/carers and emergency alternative contacts.</li> <li>Medical conditions/details of all young people</li> </ul>	Example documents of how information is collected            Description of where stored and who has access            Data protection issues and a need to know attitude should be considered when deciding on systems being put in place.

3 Knowing Your Club and Its Community

(Use the Clubmark resource pack for guidance explaining how best to provide evidence).

Criteria	Examples of methods of Evidence	Supporting Resources	Source of Evidence and where referenced.
3.1.1: The club has adopted and is implementing the BCU Equity Policy	Copy of signed and dated policy documents agreeing that these have been adopted. By adopting the policy will demonstrate this is being implemented and embedded within the club. The club should consider what action it should take to ensure all club decisions; procedures and policies are under review ensuring they are equitable. These documents should ensure all members of the club have equal opportunities and promote the right culture and ethos to be inclusive, child friendly and a welcoming club. A policy on its own does not ensure equality within your club.	BCU Equity Policy or Clubmark Template 9
3.1.2 The club must produce a separate Equity Action Plan or integrate equity into its club action plan to tackle relevant key actions and targets to make the club more accessible. The focus of these tasks will also be to identify ways to recruit and retain members.	Consider the following: Recruitment and retention of new and existing committee, coaches and volunteers, family groups, age groups that are more likely to stop attending. Ways to recruit and retain should be incorporated into Action Plan.	Canoe England Equity Action Plan template or Clubmark template 10
3.1.3: One coach has attended the sports coach UK 'Equity in Your Coaching' workshop within the last 3 years or the club committee has successfully completed an equity task to demonstrate that the club has a positive approach to equity. An equity task will help Clubs take practical and relevant steps to be more accessible. This will help clubs recruit and retain members from all sections of the community.	Copy of Equity in your Coaching certificates attended within the last 3 years. A coach education plan may be built into the club action plan ensuring a different coach attends training avoiding repeat attendance. An Equity task may include; demonstrating an understanding of what discrimination is; identifying how to recruit members from different sections of the community and improving accessibility within your club etc. The club may wish to evaluate the current membership and identify opportunities and gaps, whereby specific groups may be targeted to recruit new membership determined by the capacity of the club. Club committee members may consider attending 'A Club for All' workshop or complete the on-line training module through www.runningsports.org	scUK/County Sports Partnership website calendar of courses Clubmark resource pack web site links and templates
3.2: The club has an open/non discriminatory constitution	Copy of club constitution and policy. The constitution should cover all sections and sub sections of Sport England Template. An unsatisfactory constitution may result in future funding applications being refused.	BCU template on Canoe England Website
3.3: The club has codes of practice for parents/carers and other adults.	Copy of Codes of practice/conduct for parents/ carers and other adults.	Codes of Conduct templates Canoe England website

Criteria	Examples of methods of Evidence	Supporting Resources	Source of Evidence and where referenced.
3.4: The club has a set of rules or codes of practice for young people that have been drawn up in consultation with the young people involved with the club	Copy of rules or codes of conduct for young people. State how members access these rules and whether they need to sign to say they accept these as part of the membership agreement. It is good practice to include and consult with the young people involved with the club when setting the rules and other decision making processes in the club. Explain how this process has evolved.	Codes of Conduct templates Canoe England website
3.5 The club and coaches are committed to the development of coaches and helpers, such as support to gain further coaching knowledge, attendance at a British Canoe Union/Canoe England Coach Update Forums, sports coach UK and runningsports workshops and discipline specific awards.	Explanation of any incentive or support schemes for coach/volunteer development financially or training courses provided. Examples can include recent in house coach development training opportunities or courses offered internally or regionally. Include examples of types of support given to coaches/volunteers. 4.5.2: The club has contact with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The Local Authority/County Sports Partnership</li> <li>Canoe England through the regional Paddlesport Development Officer</li> </ul>	Details of who the contact is within the County Sports Partnership/Local Authority and support and guidance sought from contacts. Clubs are encouraged to forge links with outside agencies. Where difficulties arise the Paddlesport Development Officer may make the contact for the club.	Club Details Record doc
4.6 The club is committed to further development of all aspects of Paddlesport encompassing all participants within the club. Development plans are to be recorded as an action plan that covers a period of at least two years	Copy of an updated action plan covering a period of at least 2 years from when the Top Club portfolio is submitted for assessment. The action plan should give timescales when tasks are to be completed and person/s responsible. This should not be a wish list but demonstrates how the club will develop using SMART (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Realistic, Timed) targets. Consideration should be given to ensure the following areas of development are built into the Action Plan; develop membership, coaches, links within the local community and provision of equipment. Every club has different priorities covering the many aspects of Paddlesport and clubs look to their strengths as well as areas for development.	Clubmark Resource Pack – action plan template. Examples of other club's action plans are available on request from Canoe England.
4.7: The club has a named Junior Coordinator to act as liaison between young club members, the committee and School Sports Partnerships and other youth organisations.	Name and contact details of co-ordinator A role description should be included in 1.3.2	Club Details Record doc
4.8.1: The club has a Volunteer Coordinator to act as liaison between club members, and the Canoe England Volunteer Coordinator It is advisable that the Volunteer Coordinator attends a runningsports Valuing Volunteers workshop or that the club includes 'attendance of this workshop' as an action point into the Action Plan.
